PA Republicanos Backs First Slate of State Legislative Candidates

The State PAC, which has conducted the only sustained Hispanic voter outreach for Republicans since 2022, endorses six candidates for key races.

Harrisburg, PA — PA Republicanos, Pennsylvania's premier Republican Hispanic outreach organization, today announced its first slate of endorsements in six key races in Pennsylvania's state legislature.

Our endorsed candidates are:

- Sen. Rosemary Brown, candidate for reelection in PA's 40th State Senate District
- Rep. Joe Emrick, candidate for reelection in PA's 137th State House District
- Sen. Tracy Pennycuik, candidate for reelection in PA's 24th State Senate District
- Mike Harostock, candidate for PA's 121st State House District
- Danica Hartenfels, candidate for PA's 189th State House District
- Jasmine Rivera, candidate for PA's 95th State House District

"Our slate of endorsed candidates represents the values that Hispanic families across Pennsylvania care most about — faith, family, economic opportunity, and safe communities," said Roberto Albino, Chair of PA Republicanos. "We are proud to be driving change in the critical battles for state legislature, and carrying the Republican message directly to our newest voters."

"Winning more Hispanic voters means more seats for Republicans," said Albert Eisenberg, Founding Strategist of PA Republicanos. "We know this from our work conducting the only statewide Hispanic voter outreach since 2022. Our innovative campaigns will hold and flip seats this cycle, and we are excited to make further inroads and go on offense with this critical, fast-growing voter group across our Commonwealth."

More Information —

PA Republicanos is a State PAC that has run the only sustained, year-round Hispanic outreach for Republicans in every major community across the Commonwealth. Through voter registration, grassroots outreach, and bilingual messaging, PA Republicanos has helped to hold and flip seats for Republican candidates for state and local office across Pennsylvania.

The PA Republicanos endorsement comes with direct financial support for first-time candidates, as well as significant exposure to this key portion of the electorate in local and state races.
